1. During the first week of April 1951, discussions were held in the Ministry of Planning of the DDR with representatives of the Polish Government. The purpose of these discussions was to deal with the problem of trade between Poland and the DDR with special emphasis on comparing Polish import requirements with items available for export from Poland to the Soviet Zone of Germany. The negotiations were followed by further conferences at the Polish Trade Mission at 5/6 Bruederstrasse, Berlin C2 which were attended also by Pawel Kott, chief of the Polish Trade Mission in Frankfurt/Main.
2. Similar conferences were held at the headquarters of the Czechoslovakian trade representation in Pankow with Junek, (fmu), representing the Czechoslovakian Trade Mission located at 4 Rosserstrasse, Frankfurt/Main, and with Rumanian trade representatives also participating. Attending these conferences was Pierre Detoeuf, chief of Sorice Paris, and representative of the Rumanian State import and export agencies at Alte Gasse, Frankfurt/Main. In the course of the negotiations it was pointed out that the restricted flow of goods from the West into the Soviet Zone of Germany had caused an increasing number of critical bottlenecks, which necessitated an increase of imports. The conferences concentrated primarily on the problem of opening new trade channels.
3. During the course of these conferences mention was made of the following existing connections of DAHA:
 - a. Popovic, (fmu), of the Yugoslav Trade Delegation in Frankfurt/Main.
 - b. Gasser, (fmu), of the Economic Division of the Swiss representation in Frankfurt/Main.
 - c. Blanche, (fmu), Services Commerciaux Francais en Allemagne at 51 Jungfernstrasse, Hamburg, of the Trade Agency in Duesseldorf-Obenkassel.
4. [Redacted Box] 25
5. It was also revealed that future business transactions with Holland were no longer to be conducted through a certain agency (unidentified) in Aachen (3/K 84) but rather through an agency located at 23 Luebeckerstrasse in Dortmund.
